

Advanced Manufacturing

A PRIORITY SECTOR IN SAN DIEGO COUNTY

These careers are diverse and demand high-tech skills in computer, robotics and information technologies. Fact: San Diego is known for creating innovative products in the aerospace, maritime, biomedical, sports and beverage industries.

Jobs & Median Wages by Educational Attainment

*Less than high school diploma ($11.18), some college ($22.19) or post-secondary non-degree award ($25.59)

Top 5 In-Demand Jobs + Median Wages

- 1 Application Developers
$46.81
- 2 Maintenance & Repair Workers
$17.88
- 3 Computer Support Specialists
$23.19
- 4 System Software Developers
$52.58
- 5 Inspectors & Testers
$19.48

Knowledge, Skills & Abilities (KSAs)

K Computers, electronics, engineering, technology

S Problem-solving, visualization, coordination, troubleshooting

A Deductive reasoning, control precision, manual dexterity

workforce.org/reports | #SDPrioritySectors