OPERATIONS ISSUANCE

OPERATIONS ISSUANCE NO. 2016-10

DATE: March 21, 2016

TO: America's Job Center of California Operators

FROM: Jacqueline Collins
Director of Operations

SUBJECT: Breaking Barriers San Diego (BBSD) Program Eligibility Verification and Referral Process

PURPOSE

The purpose of this issuance is to notify all America's Job Center of California Operators of eligibility certification process and referral procedures for Breaking Barriers San Diego (BBSD).

BACKGROUND

The San Diego Workforce Partnership (SDWP) was awarded the Workforce Innovation Fund (WIF) grant from the Department of Labor (DOL) which will serve Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF) recipients and other low-income individuals with disabilities. SDWP's project, locally named Breaking Barriers San Diego, is designed to advance the economic well being of San Diego's TANF recipients and other low income individuals that have a disability by implementing the evidence-based practice of Individual Placement and Support (IPS) supported employment model and researching the effectiveness of services through a rigorous third party evaluation.

ACTION

Eligibility determination conducted after this issuance must use the forms and instructions provided. Please ensure staff conducting eligibility determination are provided this issuance.
