

HELP BUILD A VIBRANT YOUNG WORKFORCE

JOIN THE SAN DIEGO WORKFORCE PARTNERSHIP YOUTH & YOUNG ADULT COMMITTEE

SAN DIEGO
WORKFORCE
PARTNERSHIP[®]

San Diego Workforce Partnership (SDWP) mission:

To empower job seekers to meet the current and future workforce needs of employers in San Diego County.

Youth and Young Adult Committee (YC) mission:

To build and sustain a regional youth workforce system and to manage state and federal workforce development funds on behalf of vulnerable youth throughout San Diego County.

Our vision

Every business in our region has access to a skilled workforce and every job seeker has access to meaningful employment. Our community will view us as the leader for innovative workforce solutions, which add great value to our region.

Our core values

- Stewardship
- Collaboration
- Excellence

What does the Youth and Young Adult Committee do?

Provide guidance, direction, contract recommendations, connections and resources for youth programs funded or operated by SDWP. For more about SDWP youth programs, please see our project summaries.

Who should join?

- Businesses committed to hiring and investing in youth and young adults
- Government and education leaders who serve underserved youth and young adults
- Nonprofit executives who advocate for youth through policy change, funding and networking
- Other community leaders committed and connected to youth workforce development

What are the expectations of a YC member?

- Attend: The YC meets six times per year to discuss and vote on important youth programs and policies.
- Connect and engage: YC members actively participate in ad hoc work groups and routinely visit SDWP-funded youth programs and/or participate in workshops or hiring fairs.
- Hire and advocate: YC members leverage resources to expand and enhance workforce development programs in the region, as well as hire and advocate for the youth in their professional networks.

I'm interested – now what?

Those interested in serving on the YC can apply online. Governance members will also reach out to those who fit a specific need or seat to encourage them to apply.
