These careers are diverse and demand high-tech skills in computer, robotics and information technologies. Fact: San Diego is known for creating innovative products in the aerospace, maritime, biomedical, sports and beverage industries.

Advanced Manufacturing

A PRIORITY SECTOR IN SAN DIEGO COUNTY

Jobs & Median Wages by Educational Attainment

- High School Diploma: 39%, $18.93
- Bachelor’s Degree +: 44%, $28.80
- Associate Degree: 6%, $18.93
- Other: 11%, $46.00

Top 5 In-Demand Jobs + Median Wages

1. Application Developers: $46.81
2. Maintenance & Repair Workers: $17.88
3. Computer Support Specialists: $23.19
4. System Software Developers: $52.58
5. Inspectors & Testers: $19.48

Knowledge, Skills & Abilities (KSAs)

- Computers, electronics, engineering, technology
- Problem-solving, visualization, coordination, troubleshooting
- Deductive reasoning, control precision, manual dexterity